

Arno 21 mois « un enfant de la balle »

YEREVAN—Arno Ter-Poghosyan, also known as Little Arno, is a 21-month-old Armenian boy who can identify 170 country flags, 50 wonders of the world, and 20 world known composers. He is also quickly learning numbers, shapes, professions, types of vehicles and tools, human anatomy, as well as the names of birds and animals.

Less than two-years-old, Little Arno is learning quickly, constantly observing his surroundings and absorbing information.

A short video of Little Arno demonstrating his knowledge is available below....
