4.43 · Leon Z. Surmelian is one of the many Armenian children of war years who fooled the enemy and didn't die. The story of these children is by now well-known to everyone. Franz Werfel tells part of it in "The Forty Days of Musa Dagh," and Elgin Groseclose tells a little more in "Ararat."

Here, however, for the first time is the full story, by one of the children himself. Their world was destroyed, but not their lives. Many
