NOUVEL HAY MAGAZINE
SANS FRONTIÈRES

La Russie & la Turquie : amis ou ennemis ?

he USC Institute of Armenian Studies presents RUSSIA AND TURKEY: FRIEND OR FOE? This is part two of ARMENIA AND AZERBAIJAN AT WAR. The discussion features Salpi Ghazarian, Director of the USC Institute of Armenian Studies; Prof. Robert English of the USC Department of Political Science and International Relations; Cengiz Çandar, Distinguished Visiting Scholar at the Stockholm University Institute for Turkish Studies; Anna Arutunyan, Russia analyst and journalist; and Emil Sanamyan, analyst and editor of Institute's FOCUS ON KARABAKH platform.

Further resources on the topic:

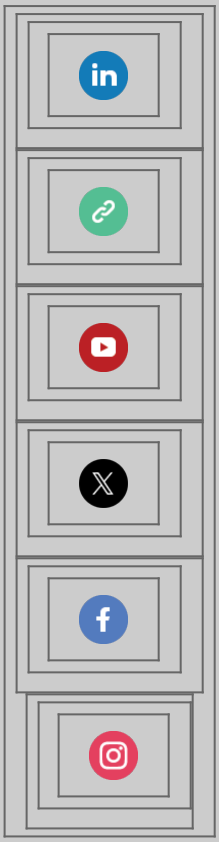

Focus On Karabakh

Anna Arutunyan on Russia's Politics in the South Caucasus

What's Really Driving the Azerbaijan-Armenia Conflict

Life in Karabakh

USC Innovate Armenia – Evolving Identities

Established in 2005, the USC Institute of Armenian Studies supports multidisciplinary scholarship to re-define, explore and study the complex issues that make up the contemporary Armenian experience – from post-Genocide to the developing Republic of Armenia to the evolving Diaspora. The Institute encourages r