

Kevin (Kémal) Oksuz lobbyiste anti-arménien financé par le pétrole de l'Azerbaïdjan

YEREVAN (ARMENPRESS) — Kevin (Kemal) Oksuz, the Turkish-born American citizen wanted by the United States who was arrested in Armenia by Yerevan police, was engaged in anti-Armenian lobbying in the US before coming to Armenia. Moreover, Oksuz's lobbying was sponsored by Azerbaijani oil dollars.

ARMENPRESS looked into Oksuz's past, and the story began to appear more intriguing, to say the least.

According to a document of the state registry of Armenia, Oksuz founded The Sena Group, a destination and event management company, in 2017 in Armenia.

The address of the company is listed as 12 A Vagharshyan St, Arabkir district, Yerevan.
