Talaat Pasha:

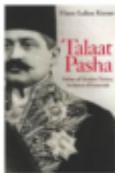

Father of Modern Turkey, Architect of Genocide

A Lecture by Historian

Dr. Hans-Lukas Kieser

Monday, April 22, 2019, 7:30 P.M.

Ararat-Eskijian Museum, Sheen Chapel
15105 Mission Hills Road
Mission Hills, CA 91345

In this talk, Dr. Hans-Lukas Kieser will present a few main topics from Talaat Pasha: Father of Modern Turkey, Architect of Genocide (Dibacokun Ltd., Paris, 2018). On the eve of World War I, Talaat and his party comrades set the stage for the coming age of extremes and the horror of the slaughter. They masterminded radically nationalist policies including demographic engineering and the genocide of the Armenians. The talk will address their ideology – which set the stage for a country that would witness atrocities on a scale never imagined. Kieser's is the first biography to bring full of the revolutionary figure who not only prepared the way for Atatürk and the founding of the republic in 1923, but who shaped the modern world as well.

Hans-Lukas Kieser is an Australian Research Council Future Fellow (2014-19), associate professor in the School of Humanities and Social Sciences at the University of Newcastle in Australia and adjunct professor of History at the University of Zurich in Switzerland. His many books include Never Give America Millimetres and Inches to the Middle East, World War I and the End of the Ottomans: From the Balkan Wars to the Armenian Genocide, and Turkey Beyond Nationalism.

Copies of Talaat Pasha: Father of Modern Turkey, Architect of Genocide will be available for purchase.
