Leonard Manoukian, Candidate for Glendale City Council – March 3, 2020.

Glendale City Council Candidate Leonard Manoukian received a very strong endorsement by the Glendale Teachers Association (GTA)!

"I am incredibly humbled by the endorsement of the Glendale Teachers Association. From their pivotal role in preparing the next generation in the classroom to their zealous advocacy for their students outside, they represent the best in our city! Thank you!! I will not let you down!!"

"Leonard Manoukian has been a tremendous community leader and labor supporter for decades, contributing to many important dialogues. His years of experience on various commissions and committees have allowed him to understand and work to help meet the needs of citizens of all ages. We are excited for him to now serve as one of the decision makers and look forward to all he will do for the city of Glendale."
Taline Arsenian,
Glendale Teachers Association, President

"We, the Glendale Teachers Association, exist to protect and promote the well-being of our members and our students. Through building trust, clear communication, proactive involvement in our schools and community, along with responding to our members' rights, needs, and concerns, we will serve as the local voice for public education." Glendale City Council Candidate Leonard Manoukian received a very strong endorsement by the Los Angeles County Democratic Party!

Prior to Leonard's endorsement, he was unanimously recommended by the LACDP'S recommendation committee for his Glendale City Council race. He was the only candidate, out of a field of 5 Democrats, to receive the votes of all 11 committee members.

Leonard is active in the California Democratic Party, being elected as a party delegate from the 43rd Assembly District in 2016 and appointed a delegate to the party convention in 2018 by Assembly Member Laura Friedman. He is also the political director of the Southern California Armenian Democrats.

Leonard has been active and involved in Glendale community affairs for many years. He served on the Board of Directors of the Boy Scouts of America – Verdugo Hills Council for over a decade, and was a member of the Glendale City Planning Commission for 11 years. As a Planning Commissioner, Leonard Manoukian has played an important role in practically every significant city planning initiative over the last decade. He was the co-chair of the ANCA-Glendale in 2010.

In response to this endorsement, Leonard said "I am very grateful for this strong vote of confidence by our county's highest Democratic body. Our party's values of inclusivity, care for the most vulnerable in our community, and protection of the environment, will be the cornerstones of my campaign and the goals of my service to Glendale."

The elections will be held on March 3rd, 2020.

Los Angeles County Democratic Party (LACDP) is the largest local Democratic Party entity in the United States, representing over 2.7 million registered Democrats and a population larger than 42 other states in the 88 cities and the unincorporated areas of Los Angeles County
