“Nayiri has been a champion of education for over a decade and during that time, I have had the pleasure of working with her numerous times. She has always supported joint projects between Glendale Community College and GUSD, and has been instrumental in the success of many of these. I fully support her reelection to the GUSD board,” stated GCC Board President Vahe Peroomian.

“I’m overwhelmed by the support of my colleagues in the education field. I look forward to our continued work together. I’m fortunate to serve in a city with so many dedicated individuals committed to help all our students,” noted Nahabedian upon receiving the endorsements.

Nahabedian’s work has succeeded in avoiding teacher layoffs, reducing bullying, expanding dual-language and career/technical programs, while keeping the focus on providing a first-class education for the children of Glendale Unified. READ ON
