

A Los Angeles (Little Armenia) & à New York (Times Square) : le génocide des Arméniens

The Los Angeles Armenian-American community will collectively commemorate the 105th anniversary of the Armenian Genocide, on April 24, 2020, through a coordinated series of events to remember the 1.5 million victims of that tragedy and raise the community's voice in unison to demand justice for the crime.

Recognizing that through unity there is strength, the organizations that have traditionally planned the April 24 commemorations are working together to plan the day honoring the martyred saints of the Armenian Genocide and to demand justice, reparations and restitution. The coalition includes: The United Armenian Council of Los Angeles (UACLA), the Unified Young Armenians (UYA), and the Armenian Genocide Committee (AGC), which represents a broad association of global Armenian organizations, including the Armenian Apostolic, Armenian Catholic and Armenian Evangelical Churches, the Armenian Revolutionary Federation, the Social Democratic Hunchakian Party, the Armenian Democratic Liberal Party, the Armenian General Benevolent Union, the Armenian Youth Federation, the Armenian National Committee of America-Western Region, the Armenian Assembly of America, the Armenian Council of America, the Armenian Bar Association, the Organization of Istanbul Armenians, the Armenian Relief Society, the Homenetmen, Open Wounds and several other prominent Armenian community organizations.

A pilgrimage to the Armenian Genocide Martyrs Monument in Montebello will....
