

Atelier d'éducation du Génocide pour les enseignants de Fresno

FRESNO – The Genocide Education Project, in partnership with Fresno Unified School District, the Armenian Genocide Commemorative Committee, Fresno, and Fresno educator and Holocaust education specialist, Hillary Levine, provided a day-long workshop for Fresno's middle and high school social studies teachers.

Fresno Unified's Superintendent, Bob Nelson and Stephen Ruiz, History/Social Sciences Manager welcomed teachers and emphasized the district's commitment to provide professional development that helps teachers and students better understand Fresno's diverse communities and the histories that brought them.

