LOS ANGELES — Love was in the air last week and it shone brightly among those whose love for the “education of Armenian children was celebrated on Valentine’s Day, not just “in” words, but in deeds.” (1 John 3:18).

A jovial Donor Appreciation dinner marking the “eighth straight year of the triumphant goals of Archbishop Derderian Scholarship Fund of the Western Diocese was held at Casitas Hollywood among supporters who “recognized the necessity of scholarship and financial aid to assist Armenian schools in retaining student enrollment. Since the inception of the Scholarship Fund in 2012, it has grown to new heights, providing over $285,000 in assistance to a multitude of “noteworthy need-based students in 11 Armenian schools.
