

L'ANCA presse l'ambassade US d'augmenter son aide à l'Arménie contre le covid-19

WASHINGTON,
DC—Armenian National Committee of America
(ANCA)
Chairman
Raffi
Hamparian is urging
U.S.
Ambassador to

Armenia Lynne Tracy to expand the U.S. Embassy vital assistance to fight the COVID-19 epidemic. In a letter dated Tuesday, March 24, 2020, Hamparian is encouraging Ambassador Tracy to work with Armenia's Ministry of Health, the American University of Armenia's Center for Health Services Research and social service organizations like the Armenian Relief Society (ARS).

Thousands of ANCA supporters from across the U.S. have been advocating tirelessly for expanded U.S. assistance to Armenia for Fiscal Year (FY) 2020. The ANCA is working closely with key congressional leaders to increase U.S. aid to Armenia and Artsakh, once again, as Congress begins drafting the FY2021 foreign aid measure, set to be unveiled in the coming months.
