

Rock around Artsakh

We hope you enjoyed Rock For Artsakh: A Concert for Peace. We're pleased to present an encore of this special fundraising event, streaming right now on our Facebook, YouTube, and Instagram channels (excuse the quality of the video on Instagram – we experienced some technical difficulties but we made it work – we're Armenian, after all).

Donations are still being doubled. If you haven't already, please give. And if you have, please give again. Every dollar counts. As a reminder, 100% of all donations are going directly to ArmeniaFund to support the humanitarian response in Artsakh.

Enjoy the show, again!
