DR. DIKRAN ABRAHAMIAN'S NON-PARTISAN WEBSITE DEVOTED TO COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES, HUMAN RIGHTS AND DEMOCRACY

Keghart.org 25 September 2021

"It is beyond any doubt that Armenians suffered a major loss in the Total War unleashed by Azerbaijan upon the Republic of Artsakh on 27 September of 2020. Dangers facing the physical existence of Armenians on their historical lands are still active and serious. Fighting ended on 9 November 2020 yet Armenians are still in the unknown as to what happened and why. Confusion and fear seemed to lead the framework of analysis in the early post war stages. After almost a year the question whether Artsakh will remain Armenian, and whether it will be able to sustain another military assault, persists. The well-being of Armenia and having a bright future is under serious doubt, not to say the broken morale of a nation that survived yet another existential threat in the 21st century. While waiting for official enquiry and a thorough scientific analysis..." Read More
