Smyrne / Izmir : voir l'histoire de ces Arméniens devenus grecs en fuyant le génocide

ODA | Silva Avedisian Collection – Athens

Our new family collection is mostly composed of items received from Smyrna/Izmir.

They belong to the family collection of Silva Avedisian. Two women stand out in Silva's story- her great grandmother Yeghis and her grandmother Vosgi. Both were born in Izmir. The two migrated to Greece in the early 1920s. They started a new life there amidst difficult conditions.

Silva meticulously preserves these items of memory. They are vestiges of a rich former life.

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Houshamadyan website. At the top right, there is a navigation bar with links to Home, Introduction, Themes, Maps, ODA, Support us, and Shop. To the right of the navigation is the ODA logo, which includes a circular emblem and the text "Open Digital Archive New chapter!". Below the navigation, the word "houshamadyan" is written in a large, stylized, cursive font. Underneath it, a smaller line of text reads "A project to reconstruct Ottoman Armenian town and village life". To the right of the main title is a circular seal. Below the main title, there are four small images with corresponding captions: "Malazgirt - Demography", "Agn - Attire", "Sassoun - Pop. movements", and "Shop".
